About Jim Hilger

Jim Hilger was an Apple II programmer who was involved in the early years of the Apple Pugetsound Program Library Exchange (A.P.P.L.E.) user group. He is the creator of some of the famous artwork which appeared over the years in the magazine as well as the original logo for Call-A.P.P.L.E. magazine.

Jim contributed a number of items both to the A.P.P.L.E. Public Domain Library as well as to the periodic DISKPAK libraries which TRIK 1.0 is part of. He was also the author of all of the additional programs included on the DISKPAK 7A and 7B floppy disks released in 1983.
